Tomorrow's a big day for The Ali Kemp Foundation they are hoping to shatter their all-time high traffic numbers...but they need your help! The Foundation's T.A.K.E. Defense will be featured for 24 hours on AOL.com starting tonight at midnight; this is a pro bono placement on the right side of the page under the 'Make a Difference' header. If you believe that everyone should know how to defend themselves, spread the word about their placement so everyone can learn self-defense tips. As you know, knowledge is the best defense.
